

CPO Speakers Series

Tuesday, November 27th, 2007, 7:30 a.m.

Closed Circuit TV Cameras in Public Spaces: The Debate!

Debators: Chief of Police Vern White (for)

Mark Ertel (against)

Moderator: Adrian Harewood (CBC Radio / Radio-Canada)

Commentator: Josh Greenberg (Carleton University)

City Hall, 110 Laurier Avenue West, Andrew Haydon Hall (Main Floor)

7:30 a.m. Coffee and muffins will be served! Debate: 8:00 to 9:30 a.m.

Be it Resolved that “The importance of public Closed Circuit TV cameras in preventing crime and increasing community safety outweighs the cost to privacy and civil liberty”

Vern White Chief of Police of the Ottawa Police Service. Before joining the Ottawa Police Service, Chief White led the Regional Police Service in Durham, and before that he spent over 20 years with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Mark Ertel is a criminal defence lawyer and partner in the Ottawa firm of Bayne, Sellar, Boxall. He is the president of the Defence Counsel Association of Ottawa.

r.s.v.p. to Francine Demers, Crime Prevention Ottawa (limited space)
francine.demers@ottawa.ca or 613-580-2424 ext. 22454